Applicants who meet the following requirements are eligible to apply:

1. Regulations: Applicants must meet the Ministry of Education regulations for International Students Undertaking Studies in Taiwan, Hong Kong and Macao Residents Regulations for Undertaking Studies in Taiwan, and Overseas Chinese Students Regulations for Undertaking Studies and Guidance.

2. Nationality:

- (1) Applicants must hold foreign nationality and have not previously held Republic of China (Taiwan) nationality:
 - i. Applicants who simultaneously hold Republic of China nationality at the time of application should not have household registration in Taiwan.
 - ii. Applicants who previously held Republic of China nationality but no longer hold it at the time of application should have been without Republic of China nationality for at least eight years from the date of approval by the Ministry of the Interior.
 - iii. Applicants in the first two categories have never studied in Taiwan as overseas Chinese students, and have not been allocated by the Overseas Joint Recruitment Committee for the current academic year.

Note 1: Applicants with foreign nationality who meet the following criteria and have continuously resided overseas for six years or more at the time of application may apply for admission.

Note 2: According to education cooperation agreements, foreign nationals recommended by foreign governments, organizations, or schools to study in Taiwan—who have never had household registration in Taiwan—may be approved by the competent education administration authority and are exempted from this regulation.

- (2) Applicants who have Hong Kong or Macao status or qualify as overseas Chinese students:
 - i. Residents of Hong Kong or Macao, who have permanent residence qualification documents for Hong Kong and Macao, and have recently lived abroad continuously for more than 6 years, and comply with the provisions of Article 4 of the Hong Kong and Macao Relations Regulations, and do not hold foreign passports.

- ii. Chinese students with foreign nationalities in Hong Kong and Macao—Chinese students with foreign nationality and permanent residence status in Hong Kong or Macao, who have never had a household registration in Taiwan, and who have recently resided in Hong Kong, Macao or overseas continuously for more than 6 years, can apply for "Overseas Chinese Students" Article 23-1 of "Returning to Study in China and Counseling Measures" to apply for admission.

Note 1: Overseas Chinese students—Chinese students who were born overseas and have been living continuously to this day, or have recently been living overseas continuously for more than 6 years, and have obtained a permanent or long-term residence permit in the place of overseas residence. The identification of overseas Chinese students shall be carried out by the Overseas Chinese Affairs Competent Authority; the identification of Hong Kong and Macao students (including Chinese students with foreign nationality in Hong Kong and Macao) shall be carried out by the Ministry of Education.

Note 2: The recruitment of students from Hong Kong and Macao and overseas Chinese in this program is limited to those who have returned from overseas in the current year. The term "overseas" refers to countries or regions outside the mainland China, Hong Kong and Macao; the term "overseas" refers to countries or regions outside Taiwan.

Note 3: The term "continuous residence" means that the stay in Taiwan shall not exceed 120 days in each calendar year (January 1 to December 31), otherwise the stay will be deemed to be interrupted. The period is calculated back to 6 years based on the application deadline of this brochure. For the continuous residence and exclusion regulations, overseas students please refer to Articles 3 and 4 of the "Regulations Regarding Study and Counseling Assistance for Overseas Chinese Students in Taiwan"; Hong Kong and Macao students please refer to Articles 3 and 4 of "Regulations Regarding Hong Kong & Macao Students Undertaking Studies in Taiwan". Please attach supporting documents when registering to facilitate review.

Note 4: During the period when overseas Chinese students and students from Hong Kong and Macao return to their country to study, they are not allowed to change their status at will, unless otherwise provided by other laws. If you meet the qualifications of both foreign students and overseas students, please choose one status to apply for admission. Once you apply, you cannot change your status.

3. Diploma requirements:

- (1) Obtain a diploma from one of the educational institutes: a local Chinese language school, a foreign language high school, a diploma equivalent to a high school diploma in the Republic of China (Taiwan).

- (2) Verified by the recommendation units of the Republic of China's overseas missions or the United Association of Taiwan Overseas and its local chapters.
- (3) Applicants with qualifications equivalent to the Republic of China's educational system, as determined by the Ministry of Education's Admission Standards for Universities Equivalent to the Republic of China, must provide a certificate of equivalency.

1. New graduates applying for admission may not be required to submit their graduation certificates during the application process. However, if admitted, original academic credentials and transcripts from previous years certified by official representative offices of Taiwan must be submitted when registering for the semester. Failure to do so may result in the cancellation of their admission.
2. Foreign students applying to study in Taiwan are generally limited to one entry. After completing their intended program of study, except for applying to master's or higher degree programs as per university regulations, if they wish to continue their studies in Taiwan, they will need to take the same entrance exams as local students. Foreign students applying for bachelor's degree programs or lower and staying in Taiwan for less than one year, who withdraw or lose their student status for any reason, may reapply to study in Taiwan, but they are limited to one reapplication.
3. Overseas Chinese students who have returned to their home country for education and stay in the country for less than two years, who withdraw or lose their student status for any reason, may reapply to return to Taiwan for education, but they are limited to one reapplication.
4. According to the Ministry of Education regulations, undergraduate students in focused industries (taught in Chinese) must achieve a Taiwan TOCFL B1 level after entering their second year.
5. According to Ministry of Education regulations, overseas students (foreign students, overseas Chinese, Hong Kong, and Macao students) who have been expelled from domestic colleges or universities due to misconduct, poor academic performance, or criminal convictions with confirmed sentences are not eligible to apply for admission through this channel. Violators of this rule, upon verification of the violation, will have their admission qualifications revoked.
6. Foreign students who come to study in Taiwan and, during their period of study, are permitted to establish household registration, transfer their household registration, naturalize, or regain Republic of China nationality, will lose their status as international students and will be required to withdraw from their studies.
7. According to the Ministry of Education regulations, when registering, new overseas students (foreign students, overseas Chinese, Hong Kong, and Macao students) must provide proof of medical and accident insurance coverage valid for at least six months from the date of entry into Taiwan. Otherwise, the university will be required to enroll the student in compulsory short-term insurance as per Ministry of Education regulations.

8. Please ensure that your email address and contact phone number provided in the admission application form are accurate. The university may need to contact applicants as necessary, and failure to respond within the specified timeframe will be considered as forfeiting your own rights.
9. All application documents will not be returned. Please retain backup copies for your records.
10. The university processes admissions in accordance with the Personal Data Protection Act. We collect and maintain applicants' personal information solely for admissions processing and related purposes. The university is committed to responsibly safeguarding individual privacy and data. Personal information is securely stored and used exclusively for admissions-related activities. By applying for admission, you authorize the university to utilize your personal information and related academic records for admissions purposes. You also consent to the university providing your application information and academic records to you for new student registration and academic record management.
