1. New graduates applying for admission may not be required to submit their graduation certificates during the application process. However, if admitted, original academic credentials and transcripts from previous years certified by official representative offices of Taiwan must be submitted when registering for the semester. Failure to do so may result in the cancellation of their admission.

2. Foreign students applying to study in Taiwan are generally limited to one entry. After completing their intended program of study, except for applying to master's or higher degree programs as per university regulations, if they wish to continue their studies in Taiwan, they will need to take the same entrance exams as local students. Foreign students applying for undergraduate or lower-level programs in Taiwan who have stayed in the country for less than one year and withdraw or lose their student status for any reason are not allowed to reapply to the International Foundation Program.
3. According to the Ministry of Education regulations, undergraduate students in focused industries (taught in Chinese) must achieve a Taiwan TOCFL B1 level after entering their second year.
4. According to Ministry of Education regulations, overseas students (foreign students, overseas Chinese, Hong Kong, and Macao students) who have been expelled from domestic colleges or universities due to misconduct, poor academic performance, or criminal convictions with confirmed sentences are not eligible to apply for admission through this channel. Violators of this rule, upon verification of the violation, will have their admission qualifications revoked.
5. Foreign students who come to study in Taiwan and, during their period of study, are permitted to establish household registration, transfer their household registration, naturalize, or regain Republic of China nationality, will lose their status as international students and will be required to withdraw from their studies.
6. According to the Ministry of Education regulations, when registering, new overseas students (foreign students, overseas Chinese, Hong Kong, and Macao students) must provide proof of medical and accident insurance coverage valid for at least six months from the date of entry into Taiwan. Otherwise, the university will be required to enroll the student in compulsory short-term insurance as per Ministry of Education regulations.
7. Please ensure that your email address and contact phone number provided in the admission application form are accurate. The university may need to contact applicants as necessary, and failure to respond within the specified timeframe will be considered as forfeiting your own rights.
8. All application documents will not be returned. Please retain backup copies for your records.
9. The university processes admissions in accordance with the Personal Data Protection Act. We collect and maintain applicants' personal information solely for admissions processing and related purposes. The university is committed to responsibly safeguarding individual privacy and data. Personal information is securely stored and used exclusively for admissions-related activities. By applying for admission, you authorize the university to utilize your personal information and related academic records for admissions purposes. You also consent to the university providing your application information and academic records to you for new student registration and academic record management.
